

Due to construction of the Andlinger Center for Energy & the Environment, Lot 3 will partially close beginning in August 2011 and fully close in January 2012.

Parking Zone & Lot Assignments

Parking in Princeton University parking lots is by permit only. To obtain a permit, all vehicles must be registered with Transportation & Parking Services.

Prior to receiving a valid parking permit, applicants are responsible for reading Princeton University Parking Rules and Regulations, found online at www.princeton.edu/parking

Violators to the Rules and Regulations are subject to fines and/or revocation of parking privileges.

NOTICE TO ALL PERMIT HOLDERS

Permit holders must park in the assigned lot and zone indicated on the vehicle hangtag. Parking in an unassigned lot within a designated zone is permissible ONLY when assigned lot is full.
