

JOSEPH J. KOHN

CURRICULUM VITAE

Birthdate: May 18, 1932
Birthplace: Prague, Czechoslovakia

EDUCATION

B.S. Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1953
M.A. Princeton University, 1954
Ph.D. Princeton University, 1956

POSITIONS

1956-57 Instructor, Princeton University,
1957-58 Member, Institute for Advanced Study
1961-62 “ ”
1976-77 “ ”
1988-89 “ ”
1958-61 Brandeis University, Assistant Professor
1962-64 “ ” Associate Professor
1964-68 “ ” Professor
1963-66 “ ” Chairman
1963 Sloan Fellow
1963 University of Mexico, Visiting Professor
1966 University of Buenos Aires, Visiting Professor 1972-73 University of Florence, Visiting Professor
1978 Charles University of Prague, Visiting Professor
1980 IHES, Visiting Professor
1966 Elected to the American Academy of Arts & Sciences

JOSEPH J. KOHN - CURRICULUM VITAE - CONTINUED

1968-Present Princeton University, Professor
1973-76 Princeton University, Chairman
1993-Present Princeton University, Chairman
1968-72 Editor, AMS Transactions
1976 Member, U.S. Academy of Science Delegation to the People's Republic of China
1976-77 Guggenheim Fellow
1976-88 Editor, Annals of Mathematics
1977-82 Member, AMS Board of Trustees
1978 AMS Steele Prize
1980-84 Member, AMS Science Policy Committee
1988-92 " "

1984-88 Member, Board of the Mathematical Sciences of the National Academy of Sciences
1988 Elected to the National Academy of Sciences
1988 Chairman, Review of Graduate Education in Chile Panel, Sponsored by Chilean Academy of Sciences
1990 Awarded Balzano Medal by Czechoslovak Mathematics & Physics Society
1990 University of Bologna, Honorary Doctorate
1993-96 Princeton University, Chairman
1996-97 Harvard University, Visiting Professor
2000 Inducted to Brooklyn Technical High School Hall of Fame
2002 Acting Chairman (Spring Term)
2002-2003 Henry Burchard Fine Professor of Mathematics
2004 Stefan Bergman Prize for Influential Research